per ipsum Regem. BARKER.

[Endorsed] Edward Byssh Kn^t: Clarenceux King of Armes to visit in his Province.

(MS. Ashmole 831, fo. 246.)

The official copy of this Visitation of Surrey in the Heralds' College is marked "D. 15." It contains 196 pedigrees, 86 shields of arms, and 199 signatures by the heads of families, including those of the Corporation of Guildford, all of which are reproduced in this Volume in facsimile.

Add. MS. 5533 in the British Museum contains "Arms and Genealogies of the Gentry of London and a Heraldic Visitation of Surrey of the year 1662, the latter containing Arms only." There are 145 coats of Surrey families in this manuscript, and where they have been omitted in the College copy they have been supplied (in brackets), as far as possible, from this manuscript.

Several differences existed at this time between Sir Edward Walker, Garter King of Arms, and Sir Edward Bysshe, which have been more fully referred to in the Preface to the "Visitation of Kent, 1663-8" (Harl. Soc. Pub., LIV., p. viii); and among the faults attributed to Sir Edward Bysshe in this Visitation of Surrey are that the following "Antient Families" are "wanting Armes," viz., Littleton fo. 8, Freeman fo. 10, Southcoat fo. 11, Jordan fo. 13, Windebank fo. 17, Muschampe fo. 28, Moore fo. 31, Gresham fo. 32, Burgoyne fo. 33, Onslow fo. 35, Scot fo. 52, Mainard fo. 54, Crymes fo. 55, Chute fo. 60, Vernon fo. 60, Lusher fo. 85, Bine fo. 54, Lisle fo. 102, Leechford fo. 103, Browne fo. 104, James fo. 108, Evelyn fo. 25; and, on referring to the pedigrees of these families, it will be found that no arms were entered to them in the official copy D. 15, though several weré descended from those to whom arms were allowed in previous visitations (see "Visitations of Surrey, 1530, 1572, 1623," Harl. Soc. Pub., Vol. XLIII.), and many of these coats of arms are repeated from Add. MS. 5533 already referred to. Bysshe's appointment as Clarenceux after the Restoration was dated 10 March 1660-1, and he was knighted on the 20th of April following.

He had previously served the offices of both Garter and Clarenceux under the Commonwealth. He enters his own pedigree in this Visitation (see page 23) and signs it, but he does not enter any arms, nor is his name among those referred to above by Sir Edward Walker.

According to Noble,* Camden granted arms to Bysshe's father on the 1st of October 1617, but this was not mentioned in Morgan's "Gifts of Camden."† Whatever may have been the merits of the case, the arms, Or, a chevron between three roses gules, were allowed to Bysshe of Surrey in the Visitation of 1623, and were entered with many quarterings in the Visitation of Sussex in 1634—a drawing of which coat appears in the frontispiece of this Volume. In the Harleian MS. 1076, fo. 91^b, there is a full pedigree of the family, with several coats and quarterings and copies of deeds, to which the reader is referred for further information. But these, with many other arms recorded in that Visitation, were not repeated in the official copy sent into the office. This was unlike his brother King, Sir Wm. Dugdale, Norroy, who, in his visitations of this period, not only recorded all authorized arms on his pedigrees, but added the name of the place and date when he entered each pedigree.

Another fault was that "The Title of Esquire was added to these 28 Families without prooffe," viz., Goodwine fo. 7, Harvey fo. 11, Hildersley fo. 15, Good fo. 15, Holman fo. 21, Lant fo. 22, Bretsworth fo. 23, Turner fo. 26, Wydnell fo. 26, Rogers fo. 31, Quinell fo. 36, Smith (a Sadler) fo. 46, Langham fo. 47, Austin fo. 57, Bates fo. 66, Brend fo. 67, Bulmer fo. 69, Moreton fo. 69, Howland fo. 71, Gonton fo. 74, Knype fo. 78, Wood fo. 78, Meverell fo. 80, Bathurst fo. 92, Jaques fo. 94, Shaw fo. 100, Gould fo. 101, Browne fo. 105.

This "fault" appears to have been corrected by some one, as many of the heads of these families are described as Armiger or Gent. in the official copy.

Complaint is also made‡ that "it doth not appeare in this County nor in Sussex that such as did Disclaime the Titles of Esquires or Gentlemen were by Publique Proclamation made Infamous as ought to have been done for usurping these Titles." I have not been able to find any list of disclaimers at this visitation, so I presume this complaint was correct.

* "History of the College of Arms."

† "The Sphere of Gentry," by Silvanus Morgan, book ii., p. 106. London, 1861.

‡ Lansdowne MS. 255, fo. 62.

I wish to express my own thanks, as well as those of the Harleian Society, to Mr. William H. Rylands, F.S.A., who has given me much assistance in editing this Work, and also to the Council of the Surrey Archæological Society, who have kindly lent some of their wood blocks for illustrating the arms which were not in the original manuscript.
